A visit to Riau 20 October 2017

After we had field work in Banyuasin, Palembang, South Sumatra on 20 August 2017, we continued assessing our research results by collecting secondary data on haze effects in Riau Province. Data collection was conducted in Education Office, Public Health Office, and Environmental and Forestry Office, Riau Province. The data will be used to evaluate our research results on haze trajectory from peatland fires.