Don't Depend Too Much On Anyone In This World

"Don't depend too much on anyone in this world. Because even your shadow leaves you when you're in darkness."
In life one of the easiest things that a person can do is put off all of their responsibility on someone else. Even in my experience I have found that sometimes people want you to lead them, not because they feel lost, but because they are too lazy to lead themselves.

When you are willing to depend on someone else's plans to run your own life, you have to really consider the fact that you have a big problem. Your life is just as important as the next man!

It is definitely ok to learn from people, and to be motivated and inspired by people, but to depend on someone else for your own well being when you are perfectly capable of doing what you need to do for yourself on your own, is no way to live. Make your own plans, do the things that you want to do in life, this is the only way to discover real joy and fulfillment.
